

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:
Crissy Smith
Obsidian Public Relations
Phone: (901) 461-3139
E-mail: crissy@obsidianpr.com

Joel Kimbrough Elected Chairman of Board For Trust One Bank in Memphis

Memphis, Tenn., September 1, 2009 – Joel Kimbrough, partner at Memphis-based employee benefits and financial services company The Barnett Group, was recently elected chairman of the board for Trust One Bank in Memphis. He has served as a member of the Trust One Bank board of directors since 2005.

As a partner at The Barnett Group, Kimbrough is responsible for the strategic alliance, development and marketing of the firm's prescription and medical benefit programs. A certified public accountant, Kimbrough was the chief financial officer for the Accredo Health Group before it was purchased by Medco Health Solutions, Inc. in 2005. He serves as chairman of the board for the Make-A-Wish Foundation of the Mid-South and as a board member at The Regional Medical Center at Memphis (The MED). He also serves on the boards of Aldagen, Inc. and Bostwick Labs, Inc.

In addition to Kimbrough's being elected as chairman of the board, Trust One Bank added four other new board members this term: Donna Abney, executive vice president for Methodist Healthcare; Calvin Anderson, vice president of federal and community relations at BlueCross BlueShield of Tennessee and executive director for the BlueCross BlueShield of Tennessee Health Foundation and Community Trust; Tom Bell, director of Power & Telephone Supply Company; and Pamela Guinn, chief financial officer at St. Mary's Episcopal School.

--more--

Joel Kimbrough Elected Chairman of Board for Trust One Bank in Memphis
--add one--

“We are pleased to be able to add this group of diverse business and community leaders to our outstanding board, and we are looking forward to the leadership of the new members to help guide Trust One Bank to new levels of success and growth,” said Bill Nigh, president and chief executive officer of Trust One Bank.

Founded in 1987, The Barnett Group provides a wide range of benefit and financial services for companies and individuals. Providing benefits for more than 54,000 individuals in the Mid-South, the company’s areas of expertise include the design, implementation and administration of employee benefit programs and financial services. For more information, please call (901) 365-3447.

#